Guidelines for Merit List and Fees Payment

For Merit List, Kindly visit HSNC university website or respective College website.

Students can secure the admission as per their name / registration number as appeared in the merit list and make the fees payment. However, They can still be hopeful and wait until the forthcoming Merit lists.

In the situation where the student has already secured their admission from the earlier merit list, if they wish to cancel the admission from their respective course / college and take a fresh admission in the same university. In such scenario, The student will to make the fresh payment for the new admission and the previous fee payment will be refunded post deduction of Rs. 2000 (as a cancellation fee).

Student will receive the fees payment link on their registered email id and contact number.

All the application will processed as FIRST COME FIRST SERVE basis.

Students need to follow the guidelines for the payments.

Admission will be subjected to physical verification from the college.

Kindly connect with the respective college for any further clarifications in the terms of missing documentations.
