ii.   Grievance Redressal mechanism for Faculty, staff and students:
Two-tier Grievance Redressal Mechanism is in place

At the Departmental Level Students with grievances approach the Head of Department for the subject concerned. Mostly, the grievance is dealt with at this level itself. The Examination Committee prepares the assessment data and errors, if any, are communicated to the Committee by the Head of Department and the issue is immediately resolved

At the College Level A student may approach the Examination Committee by writing a complaint email to the college office or Principal email id, both of which are stated on the college website. The email is forwarded to the Examination Committee and the concern is resolved Care is taken at the departmental level to ensure that grievances are few. Teachers are regularly in touch with students through designated online student groups, so as to prod absentee students into submitting their assignments on time. The policy of the college is to resolve all students' internal assessment grievance related issues within 7 days of learning about the complaint. The current mechanism ensures that students submit assignments regularly. However, re-tests are conducted within 7-15 days for those not attending the regular internal examination due to unavoidable reasons.
